Art Unit: 3743

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

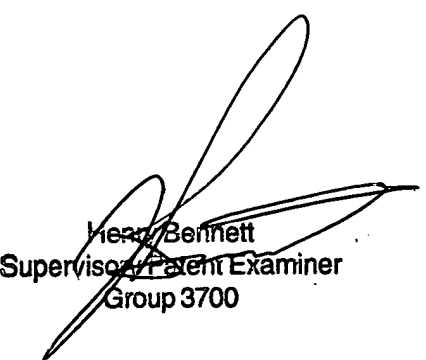

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Claims 1 and 28 as amended do not appear to have a written description basis in the original specification. It is noted that claims 1 and 28 recited essentially “...the bandaging device also including at least one section located on the flange that is formed from a material that is substantially liquid-impermeable and vapor-permeable...” It appears that claims 1 and 28 are directed to the embodiments of Figs 4 and 5 since they are the only embodiments where a flange has the claimed liquid-impermeable and vapor-permeable material on an elevated flange. Applicant should be aware that Figs 4 and 5 requires at least two flanges. One that extends from the top member and the other that extends from the bottom of the bandage and contacts the skin. To be consistent with the original disclosure it is essential that the second flange be recited in claims 1 and 28 so as to accommodate the placement of the liquid-impermeable and vapor-permeable material on the upper flange and the second flange to contact the skin. Applicant has not disclosed any embodiment where the flange in contact with the skin has this special material.

Claims 34-40 allowed.
